PINCHOT'S PEACE PLAN MAY AVERT STRIKE

TO BE DELIVERED TO DEADLOCKED PARTIES IN STRIKE

PLAN EMBODIES A DEMAND FOR CONCESSIONS FROM BOTH SIDES

HALFWAY CHECKOFF, 10 PER CENT WAGE INCREASE, 8 HOUR DAY

(By United Press)
Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 29.—Governor Pinchot today drew a peace plan which he hopes will be accepted by both miners and operators, and thus avoid a strike in the anthracite coal fields.

Before midnight it will be delivered to the deadlocked miners and operators who will accept and maintain work in the mines, or reject it and precipitate a strike next Friday midnight.

The plan embodies a demand for concessions from both parties, it was learned.

While no authoritative knowledge of its contents has been obtained, the United Press was reliably informed that the following methods were favored recently by the governor:

1. The establishment of a half-way checkoff, one that will protect operators against recognition of the union, but because of its phraseology will yet enable them to collect dues from the miners on pay day.

2. A wage increase for the miners, perhaps as high as 10 per cent.

3. Establishment of the 8-hour day.

If these three steps are unacceptable to both parties, the governor has been advised to ask them to declare a 30-days truce and maintain mining operations, and a new effort will be made to thresh out the difficulties.

It was learned also that Pinchot expects to work out a practical plan for seizure and operation of the mines.

A group of advisors has presented to him a scheme by which he can carry out his threat that the "mines must and will be operated."

It was pointed out that if the miners accept and the operators refuse this proffer of peace the governor may seize mining property and appeal to the miners to work with him to save the public.

The governor himself has given out no information as to the terms of his offer.

It is known that he has had several conferences with Bishop Michael J. Hogan, who is said to have more influence with the miners than any other man. Bishop Hogan is said to have told him the sentiment of the men toward the new possibility.

The only question that may arise concerning seizure is legal, but the health commissioner of the State of Pennsylvania has almost unlimited power in case of an emergency. There is a general impression that the governor would declare an emergency as soon as the strike is called and the commissioner would have power to seize the pits. Operators may favor such a move more than others.

If the governor promises the miners better working conditions under him, there is a strong belief that they would come to his assistance.

This is the first time that any such feasible suggestion for government operation has been proposed.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, arrived in Harrisburg this morning, and immediately went into conference with Philip Murray, temporary head of the mine delegation.

Lewis came from Philadelphia where he had established "strike headquarters."

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 29.—The definite proposal of Governor Pinchot for settlement of the threatened anthracite strike will be submitted to the miners and operators at 6 p. m. today in a joint conference.

This announcement was made from the executive chamber today. It will be a definite proposal which would be accepted or rejected by the opposing parties.

REPORTS THAT THE TEUTONS ABANDONED PASSIVE RESISTANCE

(By United Press)
Berlin, Aug. 29.—Reports that Germany had decided to abandon its policy of passive resistance in the Ruhr were denied today by sources close to Chancellor Stresemann.

It was emphatically declared that there had been no change whatever in the German government's attitude toward the conduct of affairs in the zone controlled by France.

GERMANY ON BRINK, SAYS BERGER, HOME

COLLAPSE WILL MEAN FRANCE'S TOO, SOCIALIST CONGRESS-MAN DECLARES

New York, Aug. 29.—"Germany is on the brink of disaster and if she goes down she will pull France down with her," said Victor Berger of Milwaukee, socialist member of congress on his return on the steamship Albert Ballin after two months in Europe. He expressed satisfaction with the results of the international socialist congress at Hamburg, which he attended as official delegate of American socialists. The congress, he said, ejected all communist delegates and their theories.

Berger said he visited 32 cities and towns in Germany and interviewed leaders and beggars. He found no hostility toward America, he said.

He said he believed a loan of $1,000,000,000 to buy raw materials would place Germany's industries so well on their feet that the wealth created would lead to a stabilization of the mark, and, that accomplished, Germany could begin paying its debt.

Mr. Berger charged that "America is aiding and abetting France directly" and he added "if America had not interfered with the World war it would have ended in a draw and Europe would have worked out its own destiny."

"All America got out of the war was prohibition and the 'flue.' $18,000,000,000 to $20,000,000,000 in debts and casualties to 323,000 of her young soldiers," Mr. Berger continued.

"The Ruhr situation is the greatest crime committed by the white race."

"The only government that has taken a sane and common sense attitude in settlement has been England. We followed England into the war; why cannot we follow her in establishing peace?"

"I feel confident that, had President Harding lived, sooner or later, he would have found some ways or means to extricate the European continent from its present chaos. I don't know what Mr. Coolidge will do. I hope that he will act toward some quick settlement."

The army aviators are attempting to smash all world's records for speed, duration and distance.

Two speed records were upset for the 2500 and 3000 kilometer distance at 2:15 a. m., and the 3500 kilometer mark was unofficially understood as broken at a later hour.

AGAINST LIMITING POWER OF SUPREME COURT, SAYS DAVIS

IN PASSING ON CONSTITUTION-
ALITY OF LEGISLATION
MADE BY CONGRESS

PRESIDENT OF AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION MAKES OPEN-ING ADDRESS

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Aug. 29.—Declaring that any attempt to limit the power of the supreme court in passing on the constitutionality of legislation made by congress was "an attack on our theory of government under a written constitution," and making a plea for American participation in the world court, John W. Davis, president of the American Bar association, today opened the annual meeting of the association at the auditorium here.

The auditorium was filled with from 1,500 to 2,000 members of the association, who have been arriving in Minneapolis for the past week from all sections of the country. The gathering was representative of the best brains of the legal and judicial profession.

"Any attempt to destroy or limit the powers of the Supreme Court to adjudicate upon the constitutionality of legislation," the former ambassador to Great Britain said, "is a stroke not merely at our belief in the separation of the judicial and legislative powers, but an attack upon the constitution as the law of the land."

"August as are the functions of the court, its purpose is the securing of justice to the individual litigants."

"Most of the discussion in the papers has been caused by the publication of dissenting opinions which serve to fan the flame of public distrust."

"When such proposals are reduced to the simplest terms they stand naked and undisguised as an attack upon our theory of government under a written constitution."

"There are those," he said, "who wholeheartedly believe that the will of the majority expressed through its parliamentary representatives is and should be the final law of the land, and insist that limitations have produced a stagnant democracy, which is not a democracy at all, and which has reduced us to muttering about our troubles."

Justice Pierce Butler

Minneapolis, Aug. 29.—Justice Pierce Butler of the United States Supreme Court will make the leading address in this afternoon's session of the American Bar association at the auditorium here.

The subject of his speech has not been given out.

This morning John W. Davis, former ambassador to Great Britain and president of the American Bar association, made the opening address of the convention. He was preceded by Lieutenant Governor Louis H. Collins of Minnesota in the absence of Governor Preus, who is slightly ill at Grand Marais, Minn.

Among those present at the morning session were Chief Justice Howard Taft, Secretary of State Hughes, Associate Justice Pierce Butler and E. S. Cebilos, former South American ambassador to the United States, and others.

After these prominent men gathered upon the platform they were greeted by Collins and Davis, who arose and shook hands with each one.

Lord Birkenhead of England will address the delegation tonight. It is not expected that he will deliver his speech before 5 o'clock, as committee meetings and other routine matters will probably take up the

HIRAM JOHNSON SAYS "COOLIDGE LUCK" MAY KEEP HIM OUT OF RACE

(By United Press)
Omaha, Neb., Aug. 29.—"Coolidge luck" may keep Hiram Johnson out of the 1924 race, the California senator intimated here today.

"President Coolidge is the luckiest man in public life," Johnson said. "He has a habit of doing things which make him extremely popular."

"I expect him to do something between now and convention time that will make it useless for anyone to run against him."

Johnson was en route to San Francisco. He stopped here half an hour.

ARMY AIR FLIGHT MEXICO TO CANADA

NEW METHOD OF REFUELLING
WHILE ALOFT EXPECTED TO MAKE IT A SUCCESS

(By United Press)
Santiago, Calif., Aug. 29.—An airplane flight from the Mexican border to Canada is being planned by the army air service today as its next achievement, following the feat of Lieut. Richter and Capt. Smith in breaking endurance records flying around and over Santiago.

The new method of refuelling airplanes while aloft, which was used with conspicuous success in the Smith-Richter flight, is expected to make the Mexico-Canada trip a sure success.

NO SOLDIER WELFARE FUND IN MINNESOTA

St. Paul, Aug. 29.—There will be no soldiers' welfare fund in Minnesota. This appeared certain as the result of a conference this morning with members of the state board of control.

The fund was provided by the last legislature. The law passed said that the money should be collected by the board of control from the Federal government.

The board immediately announced it would raise the charge for keeping veterans in state institutions from $35 to $90 per month. The government pays for the keeping of these men.

The surplus would be placed in the fund to be used to secure hospitalization units and pay other claims of veterans against the government.

A delegation of five men representing the veterans' bureau called on the board of control this morning, and at the end of the meeting it was announced that no change would be made in the charge.

Intervening period between Butler's appearance.

Three important recommendations are contained in the executive resolutions adopted by the American Bar association. They are:

1. That uniform procedures be used in the practice of all Federal courts.

2. That writs of errors be abolished in the Federal courts and that limitation and abandonment be understood.

3. That a program of declaratory judgment be adopted; that is, to make a statement of the principles of law before a specific case arises under a law.

This would avoid delay and expense in going to trial in cases which involve primary principles of law.

The association refused the request of the Americanization committee that it be made a section. The committee in a statement said its principles and work had become so important that it should be a section.

The report of the secretary showed the membership of the association to be 19,457, an increase of 2,768 during the last year, while 100 applications are now on file.

The receipts of the association for the year were $12,530.

LEADERS OF NEW YORK GANGS UNDER EYES OF THE POLICE

SEEK TO AVERT RESUMPTION OF
GANG WARFARE ON LARGE
SCALE

FOLLOWING MURDER OF "KID"
DROPPER IN FRONT OF ES-
SEX MARKET COURT

(By United Press)
New York, Aug. 29.—Leaders of New York's famous gangs were placed under police surveillance today in an effort to avert resumption of gang warfare on a large scale, following the murder of "Kid" Dropper in front of the Essex Market court yesterday.

The shooting of Dropper came after a series of minor clashes, extending over a month and involving the notorious "Hudson Dusters" as well as the "Dropper Cowboy" gangs.

Dropper's real name was Nathan Kaple. He gained his underworld title through his ability to always drop the other man first, and at the same time was known as "Jack, the Dropper."

He started life as a clerk in Wall street, and surrounded himself with his gang of Dropper's Cowboys.

They were for hire. Persons having grudges to satisfy could hire them to commit murder, and they frequently became bandits and burglars.

Naturally this gang clashed with the older organization of "Hudson Dusters," and there were frequent shooting affairs with each other.

Louis Cohen, under-sized laundry worker, who killed the "Dropper" by firing through the rear window of a taxicab in which his victim sat with a police guard, declares he shot merely to satisfy a personal grievance, but it is an unwritten law that the truth must never be told to the police. If Cohen were an agent of the "Hudson Dusters" or any other gang he would not admit it.

"Dropper's Cowboys" are now on the warpath. They are seeking to obtain revenge for the shooting of their leader upon Cohen and his associates. There is also danger of the "Dropper's Cowboys" splitting up into several organizations in the struggle to see who will succeed the "Dropper" as gang leader.

During the month of August many men were targets for gunmen's bullets as the gang feud grew in intensity.

BARBER-BANKER TO PAY FIDDLER

Laredo, Texas, Aug. 29.—Joseph D. Marceno, barber-banker, is ready to pay the fiddler.

Held here for eastern authorities, who accused him of wrecking several financial institutions, Marceno, whose real name is declared to be Joseph Blata, said he was anxious to return and answer the charges. He is tired of attempting to elude officers.

He will probably be returned to Warren, Mass., to face charges of embezzling $213,000 from the First National Bank of Warren.

Girl Found Dead in Bathtub

Chicago, Aug. 29.—The body of Miss Marie Broecker, 29 and pretty, was found mysteriously in the bathtub at the home of Walter Gile, an uncle, when the Gile family returned from a week's vacation today.

Miss Edith Spears, who lives in an apartment below, told police she "heard mysterious noises up there last Monday night."

None had seen the girl since. Her body was clad only in a night dress. Although a gas jet was partially open, the bathroom window beside it was open, police said, making asphyxiation somewhat doubtful.

EAMONN DE VALERA, AT PRESENT IN JAIL, ELECTED TO THE DAIL

(By United Press)
Dublin, Aug. 29.—Eamonn De Valera has been elected to the Dail Eireann from County Clare, tabulation of the vote cast in the Irish Free State election showed today.

De Valera, former president of the Irish republic, at present is in jail.

De Valera won over McNeill by a margin of 9,100 votes.

CYANIDE POISON CAUSE OF DEATH

OF A RICH NEW YORKER

New York, Aug. 29.—John H. Suthphen, heir to $100,000, found dead lying on a couch Sunday morning, died of cyanide poisoning, an autopsy showed today. The bowl of the pipe which he had been smoking was still warm when the body was found. Guests in his apartment slept.

The cyanide was in the stem of his pipe, according to the police theory.

Authorities are working to determine whether Suthphen attempted to commit suicide or died by accident.

He maintained two apartments, is married and the father of two children, according to the police.

Ask Extra Session of Congress

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 29.—An extra session of Congress to revive or establish some government agency to handle the surplus and provide for the orderly moving of wheat was urged by the Ninth Federal Reserve District conference here at the Agricultural college under the auspices of the agricultural committee of the American Bankers Association.

Because of the general belief that part of the present emergency could be solved by holding the crop until the demand raises prices, a set of resolutions presented by J. Houlihan, Watertown, S. D., accountant, were adopted providing for storage facilities and loans on storage certificates. Governors were urged to secure storage facilities and banks to make loans, or if withheld by their reserve to get intermediate banks to discount.

A committee will be sent to Washington to present personally the resolutions adopted to the administration.

WONDERFUL RIOT OF FIREWORKS AT THE FAIR TONIGHT

ING FROM VOLCANIC MOUN-TAIN

ATTACK IN ANOTHER FIRE-

Vesuvius, usually so placid and picturesque, smoldering above the blue sky of the bay of Naples, is again reported active and menacing the surrounding communities on the slopes.

Just recently an eruption of the volcano was reported, during which a hardy Italian scientist, descending into the crater, braving the molten lava and poisonous gases, barely escaped with his life as a penalty for striving to pierce the secrets of the ancient but active mountain.

These facts give educational emphasis to the spectacle, "The Eruption of Mt. Vesuvius," which will be included in the fireworks program at the Crow Wing County Fair at Pequot this Wednesday evening.

In this big set piece is shown the overwhelming of an entire city by the streams of molten lava flowing from the volcanic mountain. First there is the placid whirl of smoke from the crater, then the sullen roar of the rivers of fire, the death dealing streams of lava, and where once stood the quiet, peaceful city, now run roaring torrents of red-hot rock.

Other fireworks which will be shown include dazzling gyrators, thunderous batteries, glittering stars, trails of liquid fire, which will paint the night with literally tons of scenic beauties of every description. Novel features, never before attempted, will be included in the nightly displays for both Wednesday and Thursday.

People, animals, cities, will be reproduced in the fireworks, a pioneer settlement with an attack by Indians, and other historical scenic subjects are embraced in the schedule.

On the opening day of the fair at Pequot today admission was free until 6 P. M.

At 6:30 P. M. there is the band concert, followed at 7:30 by sports, tug of war, chicken catch (ladies), men's race.

At 8 P. M. Congressman Harold Knutson of Washington, always an eloquent speaker, will deliver an address.

At 8:30 o'clock comes the fireworks spectacle, one of the greatest produced outside of the state fair.

Hedstrom's orchestra will play for a dance.

In addition there is a big dance at Breezy Point Lodge where the Charles Merry Melody Makers will play the latest hits.

Thursday, August 30th
Thursday will be one of the big days at the fair. Gates open at 8 o'clock in the morning. There will be a band concert, judging of livestock, horseshoe tournament, etc.

In the afternoon there will be a band concert, and horse races. One of great interest will be that of Captain William H. Fawcett's horse and Anita Patch, of Mrs. Fawcett. There has always been a great argument at Breezy Point as to which horse is the better and the whole summer resort is coming down to see the race.

There will also be pony races, etc. At 3:30 o'clock is the ball game between Pequot and Major Elkins Brainerd shop team.

In the evening come the sports program at 6:30 o'clock, address by Mayor Arthur E. Nelson of St. Paul, and the fireworks spectacle representing "Verdun."

Friday, August 31

In the morning Friday there will be a band concert, parade of prize winning stock, etc., and in the afternoon horse races, running, ball game Pequot vs Brainerd and a band concert.

The surplus would be placed in the fund to be used to secure hospitalization units and pay other claims of veterans against the government.

A delegation of five men representing the veterans' bureau called on the board of control this morning, and at the end of the meeting it was announced that no change would be made in the charge.

Intervening period between Butler's appearance.

Three important recommendations are contained in the executive resolutions adopted by the American Bar association. They are:

1. That uniform procedures be used in the practice of all Federal courts.

2. That writs of errors be abolished in the Federal courts and that limitation and abandonment be understood.

3. That a program of declaratory judgment be adopted; that is, to make a statement of the principles of law before a specific case arises under a law.

This would avoid delay and expense in going to trial in cases which involve primary principles of law.

The association refused the request of the Americanization committee that it be made a section. The committee in a statement said its principles and work had become so important that it should be a section.

The report of the secretary showed the membership of the association to be 19,457, an increase of 2,768 during the last year, while 100 applications are now on file.

The receipts of the association for the year were $13,530.

LEADERS OF NEW YORK GANGS UNDER EYES OF THE POLICE

SEEK TO AVERT RESUMPTION OF
GANG WARFARE ON LARGE
SCALE

FOLLOWING MURDER OF "KID"
DROPPER IN FRONT OF ES-
SEX MARKET COURT

(By United Press)
New York, Aug. 29.—Leaders of New York's famous gangs were placed under police surveillance today in an effort to avert resumption of gang warfare on a large scale, following the murder of "Kid" Dropper in front of the Essex Market court yesterday.

The shooting of Dropper came after a series of minor clashes, extending over a month and involving the notorious "Hudson Dusters" as well as the "Dropper Cowboy" gangs.

Dropper's real name was Nathan Kaple. He gained his underworld title through his ability to always drop the other man first, and at the same time was known as "Jack, the Dropper."

He started life as a clerk in Wall street, and surrounded himself with his gang of Dropper's Cowboys.

They were for hire. Persons having grudges to satisfy could hire them to commit murder, and they frequently became bandits and burglars.

Naturally this gang clashed with the older organization of "Hudson Dusters," and there were frequent shooting affrays with each other.

Louis Cohen, under-sized laundry worker, who killed the "Dropper" by firing through the rear window of a taxicab in which his victim sat with a police guard, declares he shot merely to satisfy a personal grievance, but it is an unwritten law that the truth must never be told to the police.

If Cohen were an agent of the "Hudson Dusters" or any other gang he would not admit it.

"Dropper's Cowboys" are now on the warpath. They are seeking to obtain revenge for the shooting of their leader upon Cohen and his associates. There is also danger of the "Dropper's Cowboys" splitting up into several organizations in the struggle to see who will succeed the "Dropper" as gang leader.

BARBER-BANKER TO PAY FIDDLER

Laredo, Texas, Aug. 29.—Joseph D. Marceno, barber-banker, is ready to pay the fiddler.

Held here for eastern authorities, who accused him of wrecking several financial institutions, Marceno, whose real name is declared to be Joseph Blata, said he was anxious to return and answer the charges. He is tired of attempting to elude officers.

He will probably be returned to Warren, Mass., to face charges of embezzling $213,000 from the First National Bank of Warren.

Girl Found Dead in Bathtub

Chicago, Aug. 29.—The body of Miss Marie Broecker, 29 and pretty, was found mysteriously in the bathtub at the home of Walter Gile, an uncle, when the Gile family returned from a week's vacation today.

Miss Edith Spears, who lives in an apartment below, told police she "heard mysterious noises up there last Monday night."

None had seen the girl since. Her body was clad only in a night dress. Although a gas jet was partially open, the bathroom window beside it was open, police said, making asphyxiation somewhat doubtful.

*EAMONN DE VALERA, AT PRESENT IN JAIL, ELECTED TO THE DAIL

(By United Press)
Dublin, Aug. 29.—Eamonn De Valera has been elected to the Dail Eireann from County Clare, tabulation of the vote cast in the Irish Free State election showed today.

De Valera, former president of the Irish republic, at present is in jail.

De Valera won over McNeill by a margin of 9,100 votes.

CYANIDE POISON CAUSE OF DEATH

OF A RICH NEW YORKER

New York, Aug. 29.—John H. Suthpen, heir to $100,000, found dead lying on a couch Sunday morning, died of cyanide poisoning, an autopsy showed today. The bowl of the pipe which he had been smoking was still warm when the body was found. Guests in his apartment slept.

The cyanide was in the stem of his pipe, according to the police theory.

Authorities are working to determine whether Suthpen attempted to commit suicide or died by accident.

He maintained two apartments, is married and the father of two children, according to the police.

Ask Extra Session of Congress

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 29.—An extra session of Congress to revive or establish some government agency to handle the surplus and provide for the orderly moving of wheat was urged by the Ninth Federal Reserve District conference here at the Agricultural college under the auspices of the agricultural committee of the American Bankers Association.

Because of the general belief that part of the present emergency could be solved by holding the crop until the demand raises prices, a set of resolutions presented by J. Houlihan, Watertown, S. D., accountant, were adopted providing for storage facilities and loans on storage certificates.

Governors were urged to secure storage facilities and banks to make loans, or if withheld by their reserve to get intermediate banks to discount.

A committee will be sent to Washington to present personally the resolutions adopted to the administration.

WONDERFUL RIOT OF FIREWORKS AT THE FAIR TONIGHT

ING FROM VOLCANIC MOUNTAIN

Vesuvius, usually so placid and picturesque, smoldering above the blue sky of the bay of Naples, is again reported active and menacing the surrounding communities on the slopes.

Just recently an eruption of the volcano was reported, during which a hardy Italian scientist, descending into the crater, braving the molten lava and poisonous gases, barely escaped with his life as a penalty for striving to pierce the secrets of the ancient but active mountain.

These facts give educational emphasis to the spectacle, "The Eruption of Mt. Vesuvius," which will be included in the fireworks program at the Crow Wing County Fair at Pequot this Wednesday evening.

In this big set piece is shown the overwhelming of an entire city by the streams of molten lava flowing from the volcanic mountain. First there is the placid whirl of smoke from the crater, then the sudden roar of the rivers of fire, the death dealing streams of lava, and where once stood the quiet, peaceful city, now run roaring torrents of red-hot rock.

Other fireworks which will be shown include dazzling gyrators, thunderous batteries, glittering stars, trails of liquid fire, which will paint the night with literally tons of scenic beauties of every description. Novel features, never before attempted, will be included in the nightly displays for both Wednesday and Thursday.

People, animals, cities, will be reproduced in the fireworks, a pioneer settlement with an attack by Indians, and other historical scenic subjects are embraced in the schedule.

On the opening day of the fair at Pequot today admission was free until 6 P. M.

At 6:30 P. M. there is the band concert, followed at 7:30 by sports, tug of war, chicken catch (ladies), men's race.

At 8 P. M. Congressman Harold Knutson of Washington, always an eloquent speaker, will deliver an address.

At 8:30 o'clock comes the fireworks spectacle, one of the greatest produced outside of the state fair.

Hedstrom's orchestra will play for a dance.

In addition there is a big dance at Breezy Point Lodge where the Charles Merry Melody Makers will play the latest hits.

Thursday, August 30th

Thursday will be one of the big days at the fair. Gates open at 8 o'clock in the morning. There will be a band concert, judging of livestock, horseshoe tournament, etc.

In the afternoon there will be a band concert, and horse races. One of great interest will be that of Captain William H. Fawcett's horse and Anita Patch, of Mrs. Fawcett. There has always been a great argument at Breezy Point as to which horse is the better and the whole summer resort is coming down to see the race.

There will also be pony races, etc. At 3:30 o'clock is the ball game between Pequot and Major Elkins Brainerd shop team.

In the evening come the sports program at 6:30 o'clock, address by Mayor Arthur E. Nelson of St. Paul, and the fireworks spectacle representing "Verdun."

Friday, August 31

In the morning Friday there will be a band concert, parade of prize winning stock, etc., and in the afternoon horse races, running, ball game Pequot vs Brainerd and a band concert.

The "Scout Special" left headquarters this afternoon for their hike to the County Fair at Pequot, where they will put on a demonstration camp and spread the gospel of scouting to several thousand people.

They will spend the night at "The Pines," the private camp ground of James M. Quinn, one-half mile north of Nisswa, where they will try out some new camp stunts for overnight hikers.

The rest of the hike will be made early in the morning and the boys expect to have a real time while they are gone.

On Saturday Sept. 8th, and again on the 15th, at two o'clock there will be a special class in swimming at Lum park for all scouts who can pass the test requirement for first class swimming.

This class is held for the purpose of giving all scouts a chance to pass this test before the swimming season closes so they will be able to complete their first class tests and become first class scouts before spring, otherwise they would be held up until the season opened next summer. Every scout who can pass this test should notify Mr. Stumble at once so he will know how to divide the classes for the two days. For those boys that work on Saturday a special appointment may be made to take this test, but this should be done at once. If you can't come in please call the Boy Scout office, 17-J, and make your appointment.

Training classes for first class Court of Honor tests will start the week of Sept. 10th, and a full program for September will be given in this column on Sept. 5th. WATCH FOR IT.

C. E. Stover, and son Robert, of Minneapolis were visitors at scout headquarters on Tuesday. Mr. Stover is the Deputy Commissioner of the Central district of Minneapolis Scout Council, and a member of the examining board. Robert is an Eagle scout with 25 Merit badges, and is Senior Patrol Leader of Knox troop No. 20 of Nicollet district.

J. C. Penney Company Preparing to Open Its New Store in Brainerd in Koop Block

PLEASANT PLACE TO SHOP

Lighting Facilities for Brainerd Branch Commented On. Quarters Are Adequate Ones

Fixtures and stock of the J. C. Penney Co. store in Brainerd are arriving daily at their location in the new Koop block, northeast corner of Laurel and South Seventh streets. The steel ceiling of a cream color. Lighting facilities are adequate and the construction of the store room is such that daylight penetrates every nook.

Stock as being received is being placed in position. The store manager has already assembled his force of clerks, including in many cases Brainerd young people who have had much experience in similar lines.

The Brainerd store of the J. C. Penney Company helps to make up the grand total of 475 stores now operated by this company doing a total gross business estimated at $65,000,000. That business conditions are improving in the United States is evident when one views the list of 104 new stores opened by the corporation in 1923 and comparing it with 59 new stores opened in 1922 and none in 1921. Bust in spite of such changes recorded in opening new ventures, the gross business recorded has shown a substantial, healthy increase each year.

AT HUBERT LAKE

Mrs. C. A. Albright and Mrs. Lillian Spencer Entertain Congregational Missionary Society

Friday the ladies of the Missionary society of the First Congregational church were entertained by Mrs. C. A. Albright and Mrs. Lillian Spencer at the summer home of Mrs. Albright, Hubert lake.

The rooms and porch were attractively decorated with beautiful garden flowers, sweet peas and cosmos prevailing.

A very interesting program, based upon pioneer and present day missionaries in Africa was carried out as follows:

"Robert Moffatt," Mrs. E. P. Shipp followed by the address upon "David Livingstone," by Mrs. Irma C. Hartley, this being the chief feature of the program, and which revealed the strength and character of the man being such that he stands yet like a monument to the gateway of Africa. In fact the very term Africa says Livingstone, and his unselfish purpose is realized by Africa being dotted with mission stations and the gospel message is fast destroying the slave trade.

With the lots of missionaries who are working in the mission field because of David Livingstone, mention was made by Miss Robinson, of Robert Stewart, later known as "The Great White Father," who accomplished great results for Christianity in Africa.

An account of medical work of the American Baptists in the Congo, was given by Miss May Whitely, in the reading, "Dr. Catherine Mable." A reading, "School in Bulu Land," by Mrs. Conrad, showed the ultimate aim of education in leading to the spiritual.

A story by Mrs. Losey, "Kalenza-price $2.47," with the word-picture "How Mongombi was saved," Mrs. C. W. Hoffman, stressed the philanthropic means of the missionary work.

A message from "The Episcopal work in foreign lands," was presented by Mrs. R. J. Hartley, emphasized by the work in Liberia, one of the two provinces of Africa owned by the black men.

Congregational work in the three different African missions was noted with the reading of "The American Board work among the Zulus," by Mrs. H. Wilson, the American Board being the first society to labor among the Zulus in 1835.

Mrs. J. F. Woodhead told of the effect of Christianity upon an African chief, by the reading of "The Growth of Foreign Missions," which showed the largest communion service in the world being that of the Presbyterian church at Elat, West Africa, where 18,000 are want to surround the Lord's table.

The program closed with all joining in the singing of "Bringing in the sheaves," led by Mrs. Albright. The social hour followed, during which delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Among the visitors present was Mrs. Davis, of Cleveland, Ohio, sister of Mrs. Losey. Regret was expressed that the Misses Kathryn and May Whitely, who by their presence are always an inspiration for missions, would soon return to Grant Forks, N. D.

WILSON IMPROVED; WIFE GOES ON VISIT

Washington, Aug. 28.—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of former President Wilson, has left Washington for a week's visit in New England. Her departure is considered further evidence of the physical improvement of her husband in recent months. Except for a visit of less than 24 hours to New York to attend a dinner given last spring in compliment to Lord Robert Cecil, Mrs. Wilson never has left her husband's side to go out of the city since the beginning of his illness nearly four years ago.

AMUSEMENTS

Charles Ray as "Silk Shirt Steve"

There was great excitement in the city of Citrona, Calif., one bright day, for Steve Stanton was due to arrive from college and to take over the management of the Daily Citizen, one of the two newspapers published in the town.

And there was greater excitement when Steve disembarked from the train, for his raiment was of a gorgeousness which none of the natives ever beheld. Steve might have stepped right from a clothing advertisement. He was "immaculately attired," as the society editors are fond of remarking.

Steve created such a sensation that the editors of the Bugle, who were his bitter enemies, conceived a master stroke. They dispatched a staff artist, who, standing outside the office of the Citizen, was able to see Steve within, and rapidly made a sketch of him. Under the caption of "Silk Shirt Steve," the cartoon, which did not flatter Steve, appeared in the next edition and was the signal for a merry war to start.

Steve was not at all averse to a fight, and within a short time the town was split into factions over a question of public policy, each faction having one of the newspapers as its public organ. But despite the derogatory nickname which had been applied to him Steve won the fight with colors flying—and with the aid of a girl.

That is a portion of the story of "Smudge," starring Charles Ray, which is coming to the New Park Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday. It is a First National release.

"Grumpy" Scores Hit

Scoring a decided hit at its first showing, "Grumpy," William de Mille's new Paramount picture production, featuring Theodore Roberts, May McAvoy and Conrad Nagel, now at the Lyceum Theatre. There is a laugh in every scene of this romantic comedy-drama, although there is suspense throughout the entire production. This is a crook picture that is different.

THE PROGRAM OF THE UNITED STATES CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE has received the recommendations of the United States Chamber of Commerce which express its opinion on most of the important matters that demand consideration by the administration.

The recommendations are interesting because a comparison of them shows an inconsistency that might be expected in recommendations made by this body. In dealing with the economic disaster in Europe the statement says: "It seems manifest that the lack of a just and lasting settlement in Europe reflects into many of our domestic problems," and, following upon this, the expected announcement is made that business, as represented by this body, "would welcome the opportunity of the United States either officially or unofficially to be helpful in the settlement of these European problems and with the least possible delay."

The United States Chamber of Commerce would have the administration help Europe to economic adjustment because Europe's condition "reflects into many of our own domestic problems." It would have the United States enter an international court to take its place with the other nations of the world, it favors a ship subsidy, it recommends an increase in the quota of immigrants to be admitted, but it "is against the cash bonus and the equivalent certificate plan for uninjured veterans."

The United States Chamber of Commerce would help Europe because conditions in Europe affect business, it would help the shipping interests, it would assist industrialists by increasing the immigration quota, but it will not support the legitimate claims of the men who fought for their country in the World war.

Incidentally, helping Europe may help the ex-service men by keeping them employed, but the men who served with the American forces are more entitled to a bonus than the shipping interests whose members, if reports are true, were ready to feather their nests at the expense of the government while their fellow-citizens were fighting German shells. Nor will the increase in the quota of immigrants help the uninjured veterans to provide for themselves. It will help the industrialists reduce the wages of men who served their country in a time of need.

There are persons who oppose the bonus on high grounds, but the opposition of the United States Chamber of Commerce, in the light of its other recommendations, is so clearly a matter of selfish advantage to its membership that the public at large will be unimpressed by its opposition or will be so thoroughly impressed by the underlying motive that its sentiment will be diverted to the claims of the men who saw service.

Service men are likely to fear the advocacy of the world court, by a body that puts economic advantage before appreciation of national service. They are likely to ponder over the motive of this body in supporting an international court, when they have seen it put a ship subsidy into its program and leave a veterans' bonus out.

CONSTITUTION WEEK

THE citizenship committee of the American Bar association, which was appointed at the annual meeting of the association last year, to work out "a plan of strong public emphasis on the national forces of law and order and justice," has outlined a program for Constitution Week, September 16 to 22.

The American Bar association has done well by giving consideration to the matter of emphasizing the fundamentals of Americanism. Its committee on citizenship has offered a program for Constitution Week which will direct the attention of the people to those fundamentals, and the best interests of the nation will be served through attending to the strong foundations upon which this republic is built.

During Constitution Week the thoughts of the public will be directed to the setting and inspiration of the Constitution, the watchwords of the Constitution, what the Constitution has meant to the American people, the services of John Marshall in making the Constitution the supreme law of the land, the present dangers to the free institutions established by our Constitution and the necessity of upholding the Constitution in daily life and activities.

On the first day of Constitution Week the ministers of the churches will be asked to preach a sermon on the first amendment to the Constitution, and the text suggested for the sermon is "Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set." The text is a challenging one and itself suggests the value of those foundations that were laid by those who went before.

Constitution Week will serve a useful purpose by directing attention to the provisions of the Constitution. It may give pause to extremists who would depart from its principles. The reactionaries, on the one hand, who define liberty in terms of conformity to their belated social and political creed, and the radicals who define liberty in terms of license, may be brought to see that liberty is defined in the Constitution of the United States. Both of these, the reactionary who would go back to an order existing before the provisions of the Constitution overthrew it, and the radical, who would go forward from its provisions, brushing these aside as he looks to some distant goal, may find that the Constitution itself has in it the elements of strength that make for the right of person and property and the right to liberty and happiness. The Constitution as it is, is America's safeguard; the Constitution as reactionaries and radicals would have it, promises nothing more than a continuous struggle of the two opposing forces. Can these come together on the Constitution? If Constitution Week furthers this desirable end it will be well worth all the energy that can be expended in making it serve its purpose well.

Something to Remember

Real Good Gravy

Don't forget that the secret of making real, good gravy is KITCHEN BOUQUET. Purely a vegetable product, it makes real, good gravy of any gravy stock, bringing out its full flavor and giving it a deep, rich brown color.

Add a tablespoonful just before taking off the stove.

Don't forget KITCHEN BOUQUET, use it often—probably you have it in your pantry, if not, ask your grocer for it.

3 MORE "DAKOTA" MEN IN BANKS

The Second National Bank of Minot employed Ted Cruden not long ago. He "caught hold" so quickly that when additional help was needed, the bank got Geo. E. Olson from the same source—Dakota Business College, Fargo, N. D. Also, the Security National Bank of Edgeley recently employed A. H. Jackson, then finishing his course of training at Dakota Business College.

Why this preference for "Dakota" graduates in nearly 700 banks? Thoroughness. In method, teachers and equipment, D. B. C. leads all others. "Follow the successful" NOW. Write F. L. Watkins, Pres., 806 Front St., Fargo, N. D. for terms, etc.

Northern Pacific Signals Cross Half the Continent

From St. Paul-Minneapolis, Duluth To North Pacific Coast

ACROSS half the continent—from the Mississippi River and head of the Great Lakes to the North Pacific Coast—the Northern Pacific is installing electric automatic block signals.

This great undertaking is nearing completion. At the close of this year's construction activities, all the main line of the Northern Pacific Railway from St. Paul and Minneapolis to Seattle, Tacoma and Portland, will be protected by the most modern type of electrically operated block signals.

In addition the important main track between Duluth-Superior and St. Paul-Minneapolis has the complete standard installation.

Altogether, the Northern Pacific has more than 2800 miles of track safeguarded with automatic block signals. The cost has been more than $4,000,000.

Every possible care is taken to give passengers on the Northern Pacific safe, comfortable, quick and completely satisfactory transportation service. In the last seven years the Northern Pacific has carried 60,000,000 people safely without a single fatal accident among its passengers.

On your next trip over the Northern Pacific watch the block signals. Notice the accuracy of their operation. They are representative of the scientific precision, skill and genius which goes into the operation of the Northern Pacific Ry.

In 1923

the principal signal work on the Northern Pacific is being done on the Pasco Division, between Cheney and Pasco, Wash.—129 miles of track.
Dakota Division, between Mandan and Jamestown, N. Dak.—106 miles of track.
Fargo Division, between Jamestown and Fargo, N. Dak.—150 miles of track.

NORTHERN PACIFIC INVITES COOPERATION

IN a statement sent to employees of the Northern Pacific railroad, J. M. Rapelje, vice president of the railroad, invites the cooperation of the patrons and asks employees to encourage this cooperation on the part of those who are served by the road.

It is probable that the publication of this letter will do much to smooth over some of the grudges that patrons have encouraged towards the railroad that serves them. There have been reasons for resentment and the management of the railroads would be the first to admit this: High freight and passenger rates and the failure of the roads to supply equipment to carry produce when the loads to be carried had reached their peak have constituted grounds for annoyance, but the management of the railroads have attempted to convince the public that they have been unable to prevent these. The exigencies of the war and the terrible strain placed upon roadbeds and equipment, which was followed by a slump in which the roads did not appeal strongly to investors, who could secure advantage as holder of tax exempt securities, these and other things made it next to impossible for the railroads to give the service which they wished to give their patrons. The management knew that service alone will bring profit to the roads, and that unless they serve and serve satisfactorily they cannot expect to build up larger incomes and by these improve and extend the service, looking to better days.

Mr. Rapelje's letter will lead the public to consider its opportunity of cooperating with the railroads for the purpose of promoting the service. Laying the cards on the table and informing the public of the efforts the Northern Pacific has made to improve the roadbed, to extend safety facilities, to secure new equipment, including locomotives and cars, and to repair damaged and worn rolling stock, will doubtless lead to a more kindly attitude on the part of patrons of the road.

The fact that the railroad has advised the public that the road cannot serve efficiently, unless patrons assist the officials of the road by using cars in an efficient manner and avoiding unnecessary delays, will bring about a more considerate attitude to the railroad and will win the cooperation of all those who see that only by cooperation will their own best interests be served. Those who attempt to defeat the railroad by hindering the most speedy operation of the road are working to their own disadvantage. Everybody helps to pay transportation costs, and any unnecessary increase in these caused by failure to cooperate with the railroad, is simply adding to the cost the consumer pays.

There is another good thing in this communication. The vice president of the Northern Pacific railroad concedes that the employees of the road are able to influence the patrons of the road and to win their cooperation. By uniting the interests of these two, employees and patrons, Mr. Rapelje completes the circle which includes the railroad itself, its employees and the patrons. Unless these work cooperatively and seek to assist each other the interests of all suffer. If patrons seek to take it out on the road by hindering and blocking service they pay for it, and all three suffer; if labor does not cooperate with the road and its patrons, labor in time will suffer, and if the railroad takes an arbitrary attitude to labor and the public the railroad will feel the effect of the hostility of these.

Mr. Rapelje's letter will do much to promote good relations between the railroad, its employees and its patrons.

The "Scout Special" left headquarters this afternoon for their hike to the County Fair at Pequot, where they will put on a demonstration camp and spread the gospel of scouting to several thousand people.

They will spend the night at "The Pines," the private camp ground of James M. Quinn, one-half mile north of Nisswa, where they will try out some new camp stunts for overnight hikers.

The rest of the hike will be made early in the morning and the boys expect to have a real time while they are gone.

On Saturday Sept. 8th, and again on the 15th, at two o'clock there will be a special class in swimming at Lum park for all scouts who can pass the test requirement for first class swimming.

This class is held for the purpose of giving all scouts a chance to pass this test before the swimming season closes so they will be able to complete their first class tests and become first class scouts before spring, otherwise they would be held up until the season opened next summer. Every scout who can pass this test should notify Mr. Stumble at once so he will know how to divide the classes for the two days. For those boys that work on Saturday a special appointment may be made to take this test, but this should be done at once. If you can't come in please call the Boy Scout office, 17-J, and make your appointment.

Training classes for first class Court of Honor tests will start the week of Sept. 10th, and a full program for September will be given in this column on Sept. 5th. WATCH FOR IT.

ing Experience

There is nothing like a talk with one of our own citizens for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease. We, therefore, give here
an interview with a Brainerd man:
"My kidneys were giving me some trouble and the pain and misery I was in was intense," says Mr. Rush.
"When I laid down I was bothered
quite a bit and could get little rest.
My kidneys bothered me at night
and mornings I was stiff and sore across the small of my back. I had a steady, dull ache across my kidneys day and night. My kidneys
acted frequently and the secretions were highly colored. I started using Doan's Kidney Pills and they relieved me so I could get back to work
again, feeling as well as ever."

MARRIED IN BRAINERD

Tourists Leave Minneapolis Home to be Wedded in City Which
Interested Them

That the Brainerd lake region holds many attractions for its visitors was proven in a rather novel manner on Monday, when a Minneapolis couple traveled to this city to be married in surroundings which appeal most to them.

The contracting parties were Miss
Lillian McGinty and Robert O'Donnell, both of Minneapolis, who were married on Monday morning at St.
Francis Catholic church, Rev. Father
James Hogan, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of "Mc-Ginty, the land man," whose red
Ford truck, finished as a home on wheels, is a familiar sight in Brainerd. Mr. McGinty has made this city his headquarters this summer,
usually stopping at the tourist camp
site, from which point many excusions have been made into the surrounding territory.

His daughter has spent much time
with her parents the past few months, and became so much attached to the lake region that it was her wish that her marriage be consummated here. "We like Brainerd better than any of the towns we have visited this summer," said the bride.

Carrying Home Purchases Saves You Money

It surely is convenient to have your purchases delivered to your home.

No one will try to deny it, but have you ever stopped to think that YOU PAY FOR IT?

Some one has to pay for it. That is certain. The merchant tacks the cost of his delivery department on to the prices of his goods and you pay the advanced prices.

We ask you to carry home your purchases and save this cost.

Thus you are not asked to help pay the wages of delivery clerks, for automobiles and their upkeep, etc. A saving worth while, isn't it?

NORTHERN PACIFIC INVITES COOPERATION

IN a statement sent to employees of the Northern Pacific railroad, J. M. Rapelje, vice president of the railroad, invites the cooperation of the patrons and asks employees to encourage this cooperation on the part of those who are served by the road.

It is probable that the publication of this letter will do much to smooth over some of the grudges that patrons have encouraged towards the railroad that serves them. There have been reasons for resentment and the management of the railroads would be the first to admit this: High freight and passenger rates and the failure of the roads to supply equipment to carry produce when the loads to be carried had reached their peak have constituted grounds for annoyance, but the management of the railroads have attempted to convince the public that they have been unable to prevent these. The exigencies of the war and the terrible strain placed upon roadbeds and equipment, which was followed by a slump in which the roads did not appeal strongly to investors, who could secure advantage as holder of tax exempt securities, these and other things made it next to impossible for the railroads to give the service which they wished to give their patrons. The management knew that service alone will bring profit to the roads, and that unless they serve and serve satisfactorily they cannot expect to build up larger incomes and by these improve and extend the service, looking to better days.

Mr. Rapelje's letter will lead the public to consider its opportunity of cooperating with the railroads for the purpose of promoting the service. Laying the cards on the table and informing the public of the efforts the Northern Pacific has made to improve the roadbed, to extend safety facilities, to secure new equipment, including locomotives and cars, and to repair damaged and worn rolling stock, will doubtless lead to a more kindly attitude on the part of patrons of the road.

The fact that the railroad has advised the public that the road cannot serve efficiently, unless patrons assist the officials of the road by using cars in an efficient manner and avoiding unnecessary delays, will bring about a more considerate attitude to the railroad and will win the cooperation of all those who see that only by cooperation will their own best interests be served. Those who attempt to defeat the railroad by hindering the most speedy operation of the road are working to their own disadvantage. Everybody helps to pay transportation costs, and any unnecessary increase in these caused by failure to cooperate with the railroad, is simply adding to the cost the consumer pays.

There is another good thing in this communication. The vice president of the Northern Pacific railroad concedes that the employees of the road are able to influence the patrons of the road and to win their cooperation. By uniting the interests of these two, employees and patrons, Mr. Rapelje completes the circle which includes the railroad itself, its employees and the patrons. Unless these work cooperatively and seek to assist each other the interests of all suffer. If patrons seek to take it out on the road by hindering and blocking service they pay for it, and all three suffer; if labor does not cooperate with the road and its patrons, labor in time will suffer, and if the railroad takes an arbitrary attitude to labor and the public the railroad will feel the effect of the hostility of these.

Mr. Rapelje's letter will do much to promote good relations between the railroad, its employees and its patrons.

A TALK WITH A BRAINERD MAN

Mr. J. L. Rush, Carpenter, of 726
4th Ave., Tells of An Interesting Experience

There is nothing like a talk with one of our own citizens for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease. We, therefore, give here
an interview with a Brainerd man:
"My kidneys were giving me some trouble and the pain and misery I was in was intense," says Mr. Rush.
"When I laid down I was bothered
quite a bit and could get little rest.
My kidneys bothered me at night
and mornings I was stiff and sore
across the small of my back. I had a steady, dull ache across my kidneys day and night. My kidneys
acted frequently and the secretions
were highly colored. I started using Doan's Kidney Pills and they relieved me so I could get back to work
again, feeling as well as ever."

MARRIED IN BRAINERD

Tourists Leave Minneapolis Home to be Wedded in City Which
Interested Them

That the Brainerd lake region
holds many attractions for its
visitors was proven in a rather novel
manner on Monday, when a Minneapolis couple traveled to this city to be married in surroundings which
appeal most to them.

The contracting parties were Miss
Lillian McGinty and Robert O'Donnell, both of Minneapolis, who were married on Monday morning at St.
Francis Catholic church, Rev. Father
James Hogan, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of "Mc-Ginty, the land man," whose red
Ford truck, finished as a home on wheels, is a familiar sight in Brainerd.
Mr. McGinty has made this city his headquarters this summer,
usually stopping at the tourist camp
site, from which point many excu-
sions have been made into the surrounding territory.

His daughter has spent much time
with her parents the past few months, and became so much attached to the lake region that it was her wish that her marriage be consummated here. "We like Brainerd better than any of the towns we have visited this summer," said the bride.

DODGE BROTHERS ANNOUNCE IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENTS

Dodge Brothers have not simply brought out a complete new line of motor cars. They have done something infinitely wiser and better than that.

They have brought new beauty, new riding ease and new mechanical perfection to the product on which their reputation as builders has been founded.

They have built a better and a more desirable line of motor cars—yet basically and fundamentally the identity of their product remains the same.

The same sturdy engine is under the hood; the same dependable chassis, improved in numberless details, underlies the body.

But the rear springs—now underslung—have been materially lengthened. The wheelbase, too, is longer, and the combined result is a notable improvement in riding qualities.

Bodies of all types have been designed to give improved appearance, and greater comfort. Lower, longer, with deeper seats and more leg room, the lines of these new cars are low-swung and graceful—the interiors are comfortable and roomy.

New head lamps and fenders, especially designed by Dodge Brothers to conform with the general lines of the car—a long straight hood and cowl effect—longer and wider running boards—unusually wide doors—combination stop signal and tail lamp—and instruments attractively grouped on raised panel—are a few of the numerous body innovations common to all types.

Combining these features with important mechanical improvements too numerous and technical to enumerate here, it is not extravagant to predict a reception for these cars unprecedented in automotive annals.
